REVILLA FILMS PROFESSIONAL VIDEO PRODUCTION WORKSHOP
TERMS & CONDITIONS

Minimum Workshop Requirements:

- Camera: Participants must have access to at least one camera to complete the workshop's practical exercises. This can be a professional camera, mirrorless camera, DSLR, video camera, or smartphone capable of recording video.
- Optional Accessories: Although not required, an external microphone, headphones, basic lighting equipment, or an adequate light source are recommended to help participants apply the techniques learned during the workshop.
- Participants must have access to their equipment during sessions that include practical exercises.
- Revilla Films is not responsible for performance issues, incompatibility, technical malfunctions, connection problems, or interruptions related to participants' equipment, devices, accessories, or internet service.

Payment and Registration:

- We accept all major credit and debit cards.
- Payment confirms and guarantees the participant's spot in the selected workshop.
- No refunds will be issued once payment for the workshop has been completed.
- Payment applies only to the selected workshop or module. Participation in additional workshops or modules requires separate registration and payment.
- Once payment has been completed, you will receive an email confirmation after your registration has been processed.
- Links for each session will be sent in advance, prior to the start of each session.
- Registration is for individual use only and allows participation by one person. We appreciate your honesty and commitment not to share access to, copy, record, or distribute workshop content to others.

Certificate of Participation:

Upon completion of the workshop, Revilla Films will award a certificate to students who meet the following requirements:

1. Attend all workshop sessions.
2. Complete and submit all assigned activities.
3. Complete the final project or assignment, demonstrating the application of the knowledge and techniques learned throughout the workshop.

Changes, Transfers, and Refunds:

Once registration and payment have been completed, changes to another course or date are not permitted. Registration is personal, non-transferable, and non-refundable.

Absences:

If you are unable to attend a session, you may request access to the class recording to review the material covered. Recording availability is subject to the terms and conditions established by Revilla Films.

Proof of Payment:

A payment receipt will be provided after payment has been completed.
